

Open Source Operating System Training - Teacher manual

1. Enter the URL in the browser to go to the open source operating system training home page :

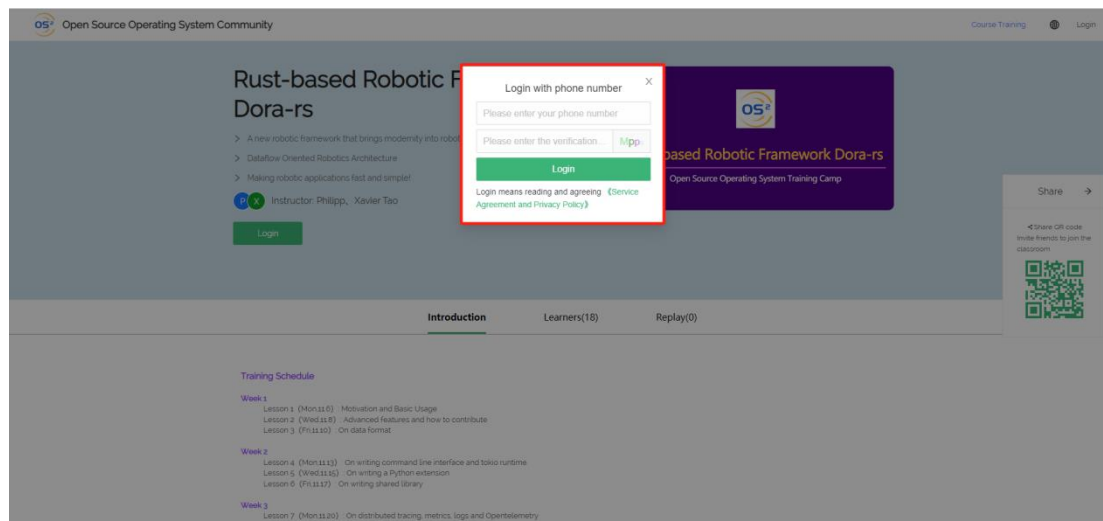

<https://os2edu.cn/course/>

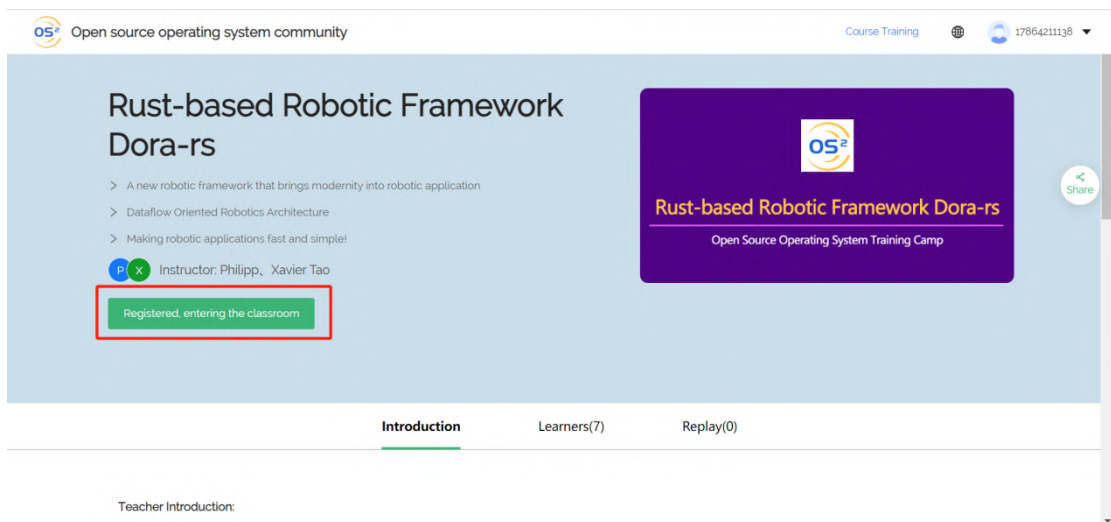

2. Click the "Course" TAB
3. In the course list, select "Rust-based Robotic Framework Dora-rs" course

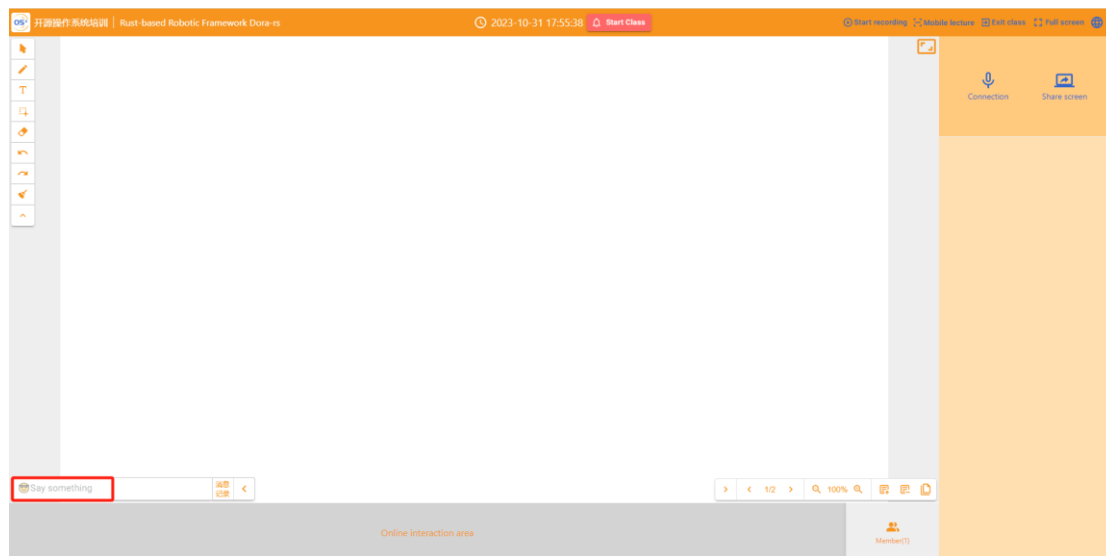

4. On the course details page, click the "Login" button, Fill in the mobile phone verification code, click login

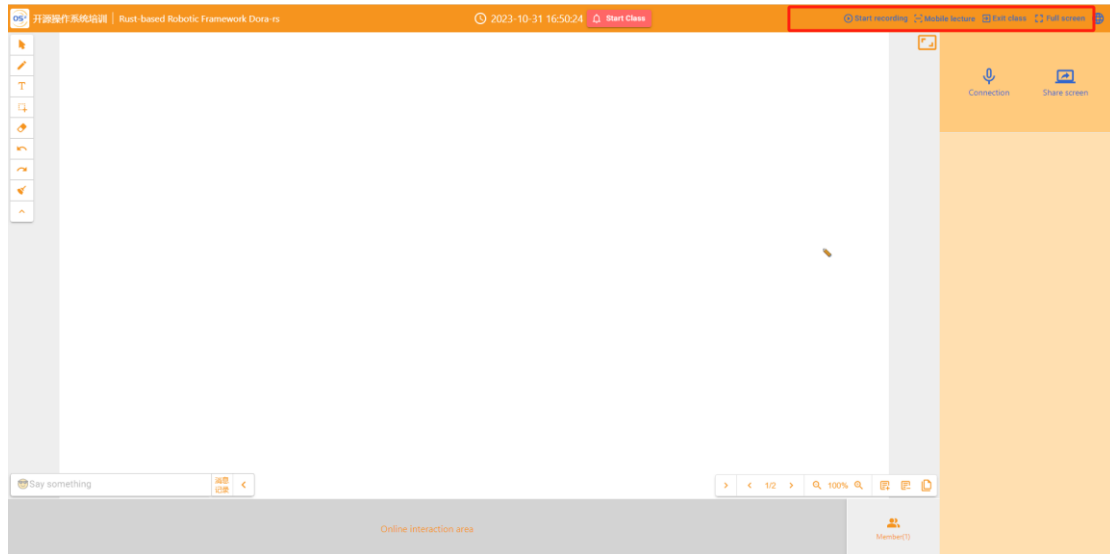

5. In the course details, click "Register Now" enroll in the course
6. In the registration pop-up, fill in the relevant information
7. After registration, click "Registered, entering the classroom" enter the classroom

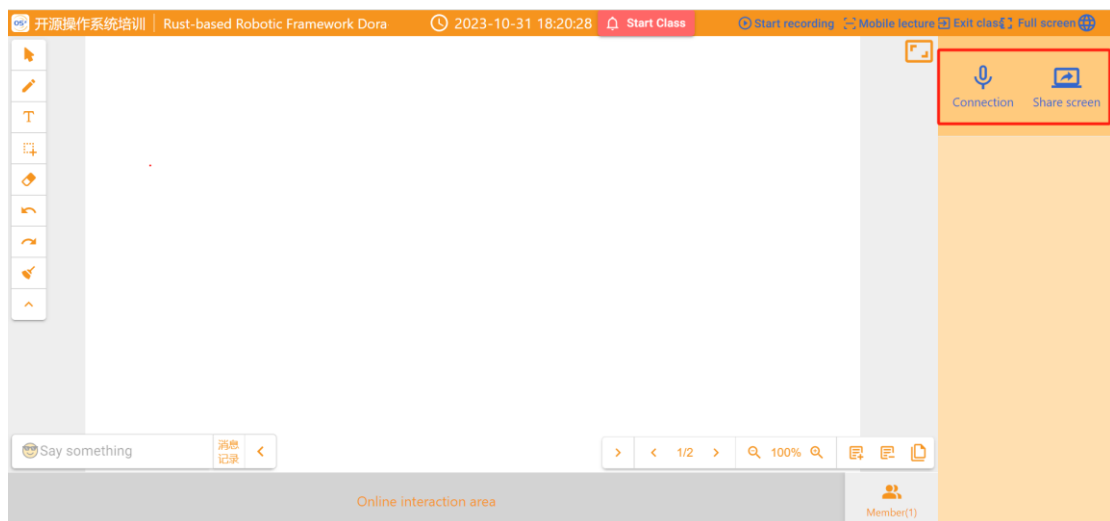

8. On the left side of the classroom is the whiteboard tools area
9. The whiteboard operation area is in the bottom right corner of the classroom.
10. The lower left side of the classroom is the chat interaction area, students, Teachers can chat and interact

11. The upper right corner of the classroom is the operation area, and recording starts from left to right. Listen to the class on your phone. Exit the class. Full screen

- 1) Start recording: Click Start recording to record the class video and watch the playback after the class is over
 - 2) Mobile phone listening: mobile phone scan QR code listening
 - 3) Exit the classroom: When the class is over, exit the classroom
 - 4) Full screen: Click to enter the full screen page or exit the full screen page
12. Mute/unmute, share screen function

13. When the teacher is ready for class, click the "Class button" to set up the class accordingly
Click OK to start the class
14. After the class starts, the class prompt is displayed
15. Right function area, teachers can share the screen, Mute, Turn on video
16. After the teacher finishes, click the "Dismiss" button
17. Click "OK" in the end of class prompt to end the class
18. Click the "Exit Classroom" button in the upper right corner, and click "OK" in the exit prompt to leave the classroom
19. On the course details page, click on the "Relay" TAB to watch the course replay video